

C. & O. CLERKS ARE CALLED TO STRIKE THURSDAY MORNING

Head of Clerks' Brotherhood Calls Out
All Union Clerks on C. & O.
System at 10 O'Clock
Thursday.

Richmond, Va., July 18. — An order was issued today by H. J. Osborn, General Chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, calling the members of the Chesapeake & Ohio System out on a strike. The order is effective Thursday morning at 10 o'clock Eastern Standard time. The strike order, it is said, will affect approximately 3,000 clerks on the entire system of the Chesapeake & Ohio.

This order affects Maysville more than any strike order yet issued. In fact, this is the first time that the railroad strike in all of its phases has struck at the railroad traffic in our city. In the call-out of shop men only two or three men at this point were affected and their work is being done by others without much notice.

The strike of the clerks will, however, greatly upset affairs at the local C. & O. station. There are about twelve clerks in all employed here and all of the men are members of the Clerks' Brotherhood, which means that they will lay down their pens and pencils at 10 o'clock Thursday morning unless the strike order is recalled.

MASON COUNTY FARMERS UNION MEETS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

All farmers in Mason county are invited to attend the meeting of the Farmers Union in the court house at Maysville at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Joe L. Mulberry, of Sadlerville, Ky., is expected to address the meeting on the subject of "The Co-operative Farmer." Mr. Mulberry is one of the officers of the Farmers Union and a forceful speaker.

Reports will be made at this meeting of the progress being made in the signing of the poultry and creamery contracts now being signed by the Farmers of Mason county.

If the present rate of signing continues in Mason county ninety per cent. of the cows and hens will be signed up instead of the sixty per cent. originally planned for.

Mason county is the key county of the district and success here means success for the farmers in the surrounding counties.

Elmer D. Downing, president of the county union will preside at the meeting.

Every progressive farmer of Mason county whether a farmers union member or not is expected to be at this meeting Saturday.

Maxwell Falke, of Cincinnati, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. D. H. Harrison, and family, of East Second street.

DISCUSS RELIGION? NO! AUTOS' HIS HOBBY!

Director of Wallace Reid has Queer Experience While Filming
"Rent Free."

You never can tell! Howard Higgin, director of "Rent Free," a Paramount picture starring Wallace Reid, which will be the feature at the Washington Theater Thursday, was seeking color for a character to be played by Lucien Littlefield in the picture—one of those itinerant characters who tacks signs on the fences such as "Are You Ready?" "Can You Face Eternity?" and the like.

Driving down Cahunga Pass the other day, he saw one of the sort walking along and offered him a lift. The traveler thanked him and climbed in. He had a long red beard and his attire was of the nature-man type.

"All the way to town," said Higgin, "I tried my best to get him to talk about his religious convictions and his work, but all he would discuss were automobiles. He had owned two big cars and now drove a small machine. The relative merits of their internal mechanism, rather than the workings of his soul, were discussed with great avidity, but not a word on religion! You never can tell. I suppose if I'd picked up a millionaire tourist he would have talked salvation and exhorted me to care for my soul."

RUGGLES CAMPMEET- ING BOARD IS READY FOR THE OPENING

Famous Old Campmeeting Will Begin
Its Annual Meeting One Week
From Thursday—Program
Greatest Yet.

One week from Thursday — July 27 — the forty-ninth session of Ruggles Campmeeting will begin. For nigh onto the half-century mark this justly famous campmeeting has had a series of campmeeting services each year with increased success from the very beginning. From a few cottages erected mainly by Mayaville Methodists the camp has grown until last year over five hundred campers were sheltered for the eleven days of campmeeting services. For a number of years a cottage room has been at a premium. Many applications have been turned down each year for lack of accommodations. The association with its Board of Directors has ever conducted the campmeeting with the one ideal before them — to give those who attend a delightful place to camp and with such religious services as would contribute to the spiritual good of all. That this ideal has been met can be testified to by hundreds. Ruggles Campgrounds is the one "dearest spot of earth" to many, many hundreds who there have found great spiritual blessings. Once again the hosts of campers have begun to wend their way to the old campgrounds. Many are already there. After next Sunday the roads to the camp will be full of campers with their camping outfits. They will find everything in readiness for a great campmeeting. Never before has the board secured such a splendid line of talent. From the first day until the first Sunday services will be conducted as in past years. For the first Sunday Dr. Miller will make such a favorable impression two years ago and for whom there has been many requests since, will be present for at least two big sermons. This should insure the biggest first Sunday crowd on record. Then on Monday begins the Epworth League Institute. And if it is anything like other institutes held all over our country in recent years, Ruggles campers are in for the biggest time spiritually, mentally, socially and well in every way one can think of to enjoy themselves in the right way.

Bishop Anderson is to be one of the high lights of the institute week. He will be present Wednesday and will likely give an address in the evening. One evening during institute week will be given to W. E. Bancroft, director of pageantry who will give the pageant "The Mass Movement in India."

Other evenings will be given for big special features all of which is to culminate the last two days in the dedication of many young lives to the Master's service. Those who expect to camp should go out in time to have all preliminary work out of the way before the services begin so that every moment may be spent in the services of the campmeeting.

OPEN-AIR UNION CHURCH SERVICES ARE POPULAR

Great Audiences Hear Sermons at the Court House Lawn—Rev. Mullen
to Preach Next Sunday Night.

The move of the churches to hold their union evening services in the open on the court house lawn this summer is proving the most satisfactory of any such services in many years. The hundreds who are attending are realizing how pleasant it is to attend church under such favorable conditions. One can hear expressions of approval on all sides and the pastor's union with the co-operating laymen are to be commended for this forward move.

More than five hundred people of all denominations are hearing the gospel in sermon and song at each service. The sermon for next Sunday evening will be preached by Rev. John Mullen pastor of the Christian church. The committee will endeavor to have chairs for all and to see that no outside noise of any sort mars the service of worship.

Tuesday night's session of the Sunday School Institute being held at the First Baptist church was splendidly attended. These sessions will be held each evening this week and the public is cordially invited to attend all sessions.

GOVERNMENT THROWS FULL STRENGTH BE- HIND COAL DIGGING

President Harding Calls on Governors of Coal Producing States to Provide Protection at Mines
To Be Operated.

Washington, July 19. — The government embarked today on a test of strength with 600,000 striking coal miners.

In directing governors of the 23 coal producing states to protect the mines of all operators willing to resume coal production, President Harding threw down the gauntlet of battle to the United Mineworkers of America, probably the most powerful body of organized workers in the country.

Should the president's move fail to increase coal production within a short time, there will be only one course open to the government—seizure and operation of the mines.

In his call upon the 23 governors, Harding in effect ordered the mobilization of more than 1,000,000 armed men on the side of the public, it was estimated.

The governors can call first on local authorities, such as the police and deputy sheriffs, to provide protection. If these forces prove insufficient, the national guard is to be mobilized. If guardsmen prove ineffective, federal troops will be sent to their assistance.

Should the trouble go beyond control of these forces the government will induce the national guards of non-coal producing states into federal service and detail them to duty in the coal producing states.

In Illinois and Indiana, two of the states to which the president addressed his appeal, declaration of martial law became an immediate possibility.

CLIP TO WORK IN TRICK GARDEN OF DAYTON JAIL.

Culp was also fined $500 and costs. He still faces the charge of moving and disposing of a mortgaged automobile. He will be put to work in the truck garden. Esther Hughes, with whom the minister eloped, is believed to be at some summer resort along the lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott have returned from Chautauqua, N. Y., where they have been on a wedding trip and have taken up their residence in Forest avenue.

FLEMING COUNTY MAN DIES FROM ACCIDENTAL SHOT

Estill Smalley Dies From Rifle Wound
Accidentally Inflicted By Companion at Target Practice.

Estill Smalley, a young man living at the head of Anderson Branch in the eastern part of Fleming county, died at his home on Sunday afternoon as a result of a gun shot wound inflicted accidentally by Otha Gulley while the two men were at target practice on Saturday about noon.

It appears that the two young men were shooting at a mark with a rifle. Smalley had just handed the rifle to Gulley who raised it with the end of the barrel pointing in Smalley's direction. In some manner the weapon was accidentally discharged and the bullet entered Smalley's abdomen and punctured his bowels. He was immediately removed to his home and medical aid called but the bullet wound at first appeared to be fatal and he died Sunday.

Young Smalley's funeral was held Tuesday and burial made at his home.

FORGERY CASE IS AGAIN POSTPONED.

IMPORTANT SERIES OF BALL GAMES TO OPEN THURSDAY

Great Interest Is Taken In Thursday and Saturday and Sunday's Games
At Forest Avenue Park
Here.

Thursday's game with Mt. Sterling and Saturday's and Sunday's games with the Paris Mammoths are of much concern to the Cardinals who are now resting in second place for the first time this season but are within one game of the league leaders and but a single game ahead of two teams, Lexington and Cynthiana, who are tied for third place.

In order to be in striking distance of the Paris Mammoths when they play here Saturday and Sunday and to wrest the coveted position from them it is necessary to check the Essex team on Thursday. Shaw will probably get the call for Thursday's game and Elnemann and Bosken go in against Paris in their two game series at the Cardinals' park on Forest avenue. Play in all games will be at 3 o'clock.

MAYSVILLE WOMAN IS SOLE BENEFICIARY.

In the Mason County Court Wednesday a paper bearing date of April 22, 1920, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Julia R. Perrine, deceased, was produced. The due execution of the paper was proven by the testimony of C. L. Wood and E. L. Whitt, the attesting witnesses and admitted to probate. By the terms of the will, the deceased's personal and real estate is bequeathed to her granddaughter, Mrs. Della Hutchins, of this city.

J. J. Perrine, named in the will as the executor thereof, appeared in court and qualified as such without surety as requested in the will.

OUR POLICY:

COUNCIL NEEDS TO USE ITS BRAIN

While the members of our city council come in for much rather severe criticism for some of their foolish and baby acts, it must be admitted that the members of council have brains and some of the officials know how to use them. From past performances it appears that they are making little use of their power to think and if they are not to close their term with a record unequalled by any preceding council for foolishness, they must awaken, and, casting aside their sheer foolishness, get down to real business.

The record for all past bodies of any sort, was broken last week when the Police Committee, a standing committee of council, took the bit in its own mouth, held a meeting and heard testimony in an alleged case of failing to do his duty on the part of a member of the police force.

The members of this committee sat as a court to try the official against whom no charges had been officially filed, before the matter had ever been referred to the committee by council. Not considering the merits of the case against the policeman, it is certainly coming to a pretty pass when any official, without due process, can be jerked before a committee for an investigation before any charges have been filed against him.

The members of this committee who attended this supposed-to-be committee meeting certainly did not use their thinking power before being drawn into such a gathering as they held. Do not the six members of council who compose this committee, know that no committee has any authority unless that authority is delegated to the committee by council? Do they not know that the committee had no right whatever to review this case until the case was properly presented to Council by the Mayor and then referred to the committee by Council? If they claim they do not know this, they admit a weakness that should disqualify them from the high position they now hold and if they claim that they knew they had no authority to hear the case, what excuse can they offer for going into the matter, hearing witnesses and citing the questioned policeman to appear before them?

These six men certainly know that their committee is a part of, and a servant of, City Council. They certainly know that their committee is not delegated with blanket powers to jerk in an officer and go through the form of a trial on every street report that may gain circulation.

The Police Committee had no authority whatever to proceed as they did proceed in this case. They obtain authority to investigate such cases only after that authority is given them by the whole of council. The case must come into their hands from council as a whole. No committee of council can act without specific authority from Council so to act. No official can be cited for trial until formal charges are filed before the whole of Council by the Mayor.

We are informed that this is the second time that the Police Committee has acted in this manner and we are surprised that officials have permitted such usurpation of powers and that the Councilmen continue such foolish, unlawful and kiddish manners of conducting the city's affairs.

GREAT VICTORY FOR EDUCATION

The special school tax election held in the Lewisburg school district on last Saturday was the greatest victory for education ever registered in Mason county and so far as we know, in the entire state of Kentucky.

There were two hundred taxpayers in this district participating in the election and not a single vote was registered against the special thirty cent tax, all two hundred voting in favor of assessing this special tax upon themselves in order that the district might have a first class consolidated school for the proper education of their children.

We always knew Lewisburg was one of the best districts in Mason county and our belief in this respect is strengthened in this splendid demonstration of their belief in the education of their youth. The establishment and maintenance of a first class school in any community is a splendid barometer registration of progress and right thinking.

We congratulate the good people of Lewisburg. They have shown their wholeheartedness in this proposition and deserve and shall receive the hearty commendation and full co-operation and assistance not only of the school authorities of the county but all who believe in better fitting the children for the bigger life.

DANGEROUS BUSINESS

For the first time in many a day resistance was made a few nights ago to an arrest attempted by a member of the local police force. Fortunate for all there was no one hurt and the whole affair is a very regrettable one but in it there is a lesson that may be profitable to all of us.

Resisting an officer of the law is dangerous business. In the old days, it might have ended in a cracked head and submission but today as yesterday, it is dangerous business.

We are informed through a stranger who witnessed the affair of a few nights ago that the officer attempting to make the arrest displayed a cool head and clear brain throughout and for it he is entitled to be congratulated. We too, are opposed to the brutal use of the night stick but there are still those who use them and although the resistance may not end in a broken head, it is costly and the height of folly.

Peaceful submission to arrest, guilty or innocent, pays in the long run. Every man is entitled to a fair hearing in court and if the arrest is merely a matter of persecution such a one is given due recourse in law.

The church-going people of Maysville are certainly entitled to enough consideration to have Sutton street blocked for an hour each Sunday evening during the union services.

The greatest sport yet is a dip in the Ohio at Beechwood Beach.

FARM AND HOME NEWS FROM OVER KENTUCKY.

Five scrub bulls will be eliminated from Campbell county dairy herds as a result of the recent organization of a cooperative purebred Jersey sire association in that county, according to County Agent H. F. Link. The organization is made up of 25 farmers who own about 150 cows. In addition, the county has a cooperative purebred Holstein sire association.

A number of Union county farmers are showing lively interest in the value of limestone for soil improvement. County Agent L. C. Brewer says, S. W. Blue recently shipped in two earloads to be used on his farm near Morganfield. His results with the material have been so satisfactory that he intends to use two car loads annually for the next five years.

The eradication of cattle tuberculosis is going forward with good results in McLean county, according to County Agent R. H. Ford. Fifty-seven animals recently were tested in one day in connection with the campaign being conducted against the disease. No reactors were found.

Hundreds of tons of limestone are being crushed by Lincoln county farmers who will use the material on their farms this fall in an effort to improve their soils. County Agent C. B. Histon says Four hundred tons recently have been crushed in the Hubbs community while the state crusher, which is being used for the work, is scheduled for additional work throughout the summer and fall.

Two hundred farm boys and girls from Christian and Todd counties recently attended the junior agricultural club camp held for them at Seabury Springs by the College of Agriculture extension division, County Agent I. C. Graddy says.

Indications are that Crittenden county farmers will use increased amounts of limestone this fall in improving their soils. County Agent John R. Spencer says. Two earloads recently were ordered in one week by different farmers.

Definite plans in connection with the "Better County Achievement Campaign," which Jackson county has entered, recently were put under way when more than 3,000 interested persons gathered at McKee in a community get-together meeting. County Agent W. R. Reynolds says. Ministers, lawyers, farmers, junior agricultural club members and other persons of varying interests met in separate sessions to perfect plans whereby they might help carry the campaign forward in the county.

Henderson county farmers and fruit growers are planning to make an elaborate fruit display at the coming Kentucky State Fair, according to County Agent D. W. Martin, who has been appointed to take charge of the exhibit. Many individual fruit growers and farmers are expected to enter fruit in the exhibit, he said.

J. W. Lile, a farmer living in the Clarkston community of Grayson county, is succeeding in demonstrating the value of limestone and acid phosphate in increasing wheat yields to farmers in that section. County Agent R. W. Seance says. Last year he obtained good results by using these two materials on his wheat and this year is planning to use more limestone.

POOR SEED BEDS LOWER AVERAGE WHEAT YIELDS.

Lexington, Ky. — The ten-year average yield of wheat in Kentucky is only 12 bushels an acre, crop specialists say. Such low yields seldom are profitable and in many cases do not even pay the labor cost of producing the crop. Food soils, fungus diseases, and insects have been given as some of the main causes for the low yields. In addition to these causes, poorly prepared seed beds contribute toward cutting down the amount of grain that is harvested, according to R. E. Stephenson, agronomy specialist of the College of Agriculture. A portion of the Kentucky wheat crop is seeded on corn ground, part of it after tobacco, cowpeas and soybeans and a part of it after wheat, oats or clover, in which case the land must be broken and prepared before seeding. When land is broken for wheat, the plowing should be done early in the season. This gives time for the soil to settle and become firm, this point being especially important since wheat does not thrive in a freshly prepared, loose seedbed. Where wheat follows oats, the plowing should be done immediately after the oats crop is removed. As soon as it has been plowed, the soil should be harrowed and worked down to a firm bed.

NEW POULTRY BOOKLET IS READY FOR FARMERS.

Lexington, Ky. — "Helpful Hints for Poultrymen," is the title of the latest publication from the College of Agriculture, the new booklet now being ready for free distribution to interested farmers and poultrymen. It answers the question, "which is the best breed of chickens?" and then gives a detailed discussion of such things as selecting layers, breeding for eggs, culling, management hints, feeding laying hens, chick feeding, artificial brooding, fattening, housing and poultry pests and diseases. The booklet, which also contains a list of reference bulletins and circulars, may be obtained free by writing the Experiment Station at Lexington.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — The alt of the old curb exchange presents a very different appearance at noon from what it did before the curb went inside. The wide portion of Broad street, a little distance from the Stock Exchange, used to be crowded with the curb runners wearing their distinctive head coverings to attract the attention of the signers from the broker's offices in the windows above. Now the street is deserted by many of these offices have "to let" signs in the windows, and one of the most valuable floors for the curb traders is occupied by a dress house, known as The Narcissus Shop. It is a contrasting sight to the old scene of excited traders talking into telephones and announcers making queer gestulations to the traders below in the street.

In a quiet and inconspicuous way the "big business men" of this city are showing their intense interest in the tariff bill now being debated by Congress. Usually these leaders "let 'er slide" except where they may be personally interested. An instance of the new interest in national topics was given recently when a representative gathering met at one of the great luncheon clubs within a stone's throw of Wall street and demanded to know what is the situation concerning American potash with reference to the tariff bill. Amor F. Keene, one of the best known mining engineers and authorities on potash in this country, was asked to explain. He summarized the situation in this view, "America can produce all the potash she needs now and for hundreds of years to come from her own deposits. She cannot do this profitably without tariff protection since the European manufacturers can monopolize our market owing to their methods, fully developed potash deposits and the low rate of exchange. A bounty to American producers will save the potash industry here and will save the American farmer from having to depend on the European monopoly which will undoubtedly raise prices if ever it controls the American market.

That chivalry does not stalk in the streets of New York in the same way that it is rampant in the sunny South, must have been the opinion of one of the Southern beauties who is here for the Summer Session at Columbia. She ventured out on Broadway the other night to go to a theater, but took a small flat box with her. When questioned by her escort as to its content, she opened it and revealed a tiny, polished, pearl-handled automatic, fully loaded. "Oh, that? That's just a little present I got down South," she explained. "I've been carry it around with me since I've been here. I'd never seen New York before, and had heard that such a thing was necessary."

The Stadium concerts are on again, and are one of the chief joys of the person who must remain in town. They are given in the Stadium of New York University nightly, and it is a common thing for ten thousand people to attend. Excellent music given by a well known Symphony Orchestra, augmented by good soloists, is given for a nominal admission. To add to the pleasure the buses make a special run to the grounds and one may combine a ride and a concert in the open air any evening. The Stadium and the concert series are the result of the beneficence of Adolph Lewisohn, who takes an active part in their management each year.

man is not an easy one at this time of year. I have recently heard of a man who goes from one line to another with the change of the moon and can always sell, but he got fed up during the recent hot spell, and used his ingenuity to sell himself to an organization making a business of selling empanadas. He went in looking very prosperous, and this, coupled with his ready speech, invoked the question as to why he should be out of a job. He answered that he didn't need to work, having an income, but that every now and then he took up some work that appealed to him, hoping that he could sell his way to make it a permanent connection. This so impressed the organization, that their work was so engrossing as to acquire a man who didn't have to work, that they accepted him immediately. He then pointed out to them that a valuable inducement to other men to go into their line of work was not without value, and that they should pay him a retainer. Since he looked the part, and promised to keep up the show of one satiated with this world's goods and yet working for the love of it, they agreed to give him fifty dollars a week for looking as if he didn't need to work.

Walking through lower Seventh avenue, I was struck by a perky ballet girl, cut from wood and serving as an advertising sign in the window of a little shop. I stopped to see whether it was a costume or a cigarette maker's. On the glass below in black and gold letters were the words, "Church furnishings and equipment."

KENTUCKY FARMERS PLAN TO USE MORE FERTILIZER.

Lexington, Ky. — Reports being received at the College of Agriculture from county agricultural agents in various parts of the state indicate that Kentucky farmers this year will use fertilizers, particularly limestone and acid phosphate, more extensively than they have in the past few years. This is seen by soil specialists at the college as a marked step toward soil improvement in view of the fact that limestone and acid phosphate, when used on the state's soil experiment fields, repeatedly have demonstrated their ability to increase crop yields on practically all types of soil found in Kentucky.

Grayson county farmers have made arrangements to use at least 500 tons of limestone this fall, more than 90 per cent. of which will be used in connection with acid phosphate, County Agent R. W. Searee says. Applications will be made at the rate of two tons of limestone and 300 pounds of phosphate an acre. It is expected that at least 500 acres will be limed in the county.

In Henderson county, farmers have made arrangements to pool their orders for stone in order to increase its use in the county, according to County Agent D. W. Martin, while 400 tons of stone already have been crushed in Lincoln county and plans made for the crusher to work in four other communities during the summer and fall. C. B. Elston, county agent, says.

Contracts have been made for the crushing of 700 tons of limestone in Larue county, according to County Agent J. W. Jones, who adds that interest in the use of limestone and its value in increasing crop yields is growing in that county. Farmers in one community of Oldham county have made arrangements for a carload of stone which will be used on wheat and clover demonstrations to be conducted on 15 different farms, County Agent Gordon B. Nance says.

A number of Union county farmers are obtaining good results by using limestone, County Agent L. C. Brewer says. One of them, S. W. Blue, who lives near Morganfield, is planning to use two carloads each year on his farm for the next five years.

STEADFAST CONFIDENCE

The Following Statement Should Form Conclusive Proof of Merit To Every Maysville Reader.

Could stronger proof of the merit of any remedy be desired than the statements of grateful endorser who say their confidence has been undiminished by lapse of time? These are the kind of statements that are appearing constantly in your local papers for Doan's Kidney Pills. They are twofold and confirmed, with new enthusiasm. Can any reader doubt the following? It is from a Maysville resident: Mrs. M. Holliday, 221 East Second street, says: "My back became weak and lame and acted across my kidneys. My kidneys acted irregularly and I was dizzy and had headaches. I used Doan's Kidney Pills bought at Wood & Son's Drug Store and they relieved me of the attack." (Statement given November 16th, 1916.)

On November 22, 1920, Mrs. Holliday added: "My kidneys have given me no trouble at all since using Doan's Kidney Pills. I gladly renew my former statement."

USCO set the high value mark for 30 x 3 1/2 tires when it originated the $10.90 price last fall.

USCO today betters that mark with a new and greater USCO—an USCO improved in many important ways.

For instance, a thicker tread—with a surer hold on the road—thicker side walls, adding strength and life to the tire.

And the price is $10.90—with the tax absorbed by the manufacturer.

Men have always looked to USCO for the biggest tire money's worth on the market.

MORNING LECTURES TO BE FEATURE OF CHAUTAUQUA

Dr. Arthur Frederick Ewert Returned From a Trip Around the World, Will Speak Five Mornings.

An announcement that will be received with enthusiastic applause is made by Secretary R. N. Stickley of the Maysville Chautauqua and that is that this year there is to be a series of morning four lectures on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Chautauqua.

Local people will also be pleased to know that these morning four lectures are to be delivered by Dr. Arthur F. Ewert, of Chicago, who was the superintendent of last year's chautauqua and who will be superintendent again this year.

Dr. Ewert recently returned from a trip around the world and his series of lectures will be on this trip. Those who attended last year's chautauqua know that these morning lectures will be a big feature of the eight day program which will be held at Beechwood Park beginning August 6th. Season tickets are now being sold by the guarantors.

SCHOOL MAN CITED.

Frankfort, Ky., July 18. — T. S. Anderson, county superintendent of Magoffin county, has been cited to appear before George Colvin, state superintendent of public instruction, at 10 o'clock Thursday morning to show cause why his certificate should not be revoked. The grounds, according to Mr. Colvin, are fraudulent conducting examinations for teachers' certificates, neglect of duty and conduct unbecoming a superintendent.

According to Mr. Colvin, he has confessions from two men, who said they acted as helpers at the teachers' examination in May. These helpers, Mr. Colvin said, told him they were paid to assist certain applicants for teachers' certificates.

HERBS USED IN MEDICINES

A Manchester, England, paper urges the renewed cultivation of old-fashioned medicinal herbs in English gardens. In the United States they have also gone out of fashion as a feature of the small garden, although they are imported in large quantities from Turkey, India and China, where they are grown purely for commercial purposes, as their medicinal value is recognized by many leading physicians. Tons of medicinal herbs are used annually in the preparation of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most successful medicine for women's ills. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and women afflicted with such ailments should try it.

PARIS CITIZENS MUST PAY OR FORSAKE WATER.

Frankfort, Ky., July 18. — The temporary injunction issued against the Paris Water Company at the instance of M. Paul Collier in the Bourbon Circuit Court June 28 last, restraining the company from shutting off the water of those citizens who declined to pay an advance of approximately 33 1/2 per cent, was dissolved today in a memorandum opinion of Judge Augustus Thomas of the Court of Appeals. Judge Thomas sustained the water company's motion to dissolve the injunction and the case will be heard later on its merits.

BRUTAL MURDER MYSTERY IS FINALLY SOLVED.

Dayton, Ohio, July 19. — A man known to hundreds of children here as the "rabbit man," because he gave them rabbits, is today in jail charged with first degree murder.

Early this morning, police say, he signed a confession that he attacked and killed Arthur Moore, 13, a Boy Scout, of 525 West Third street, on the night of May 19. The murder took place on what is known as Smith's commons and was considered one of the most brutal in the annals of the Dayton police department.

The little fellow had been choked and beaten to death. In his confession the prisoner, according to Sheriff James Cuslek and Sergeant of Police E. L. Shafer, said in part:

"I am guilty. I killed the boy. I did not know it until a day or two later but I know I killed him."

CLAUD TERRELL, STATE HOUSE LEADER, DEAD.

Prior to going to Battle Creek two months ago, Mr. Terrell had been in a hospital in Louisville for nearly a year.

Mr. Terrell served as Speaker in 1912 and 1914. He was a native of Trimble county, where he served as county attorney before being elected to the House of Representatives.
